

Radix Netpoint Geotrack and Locking Module for Android

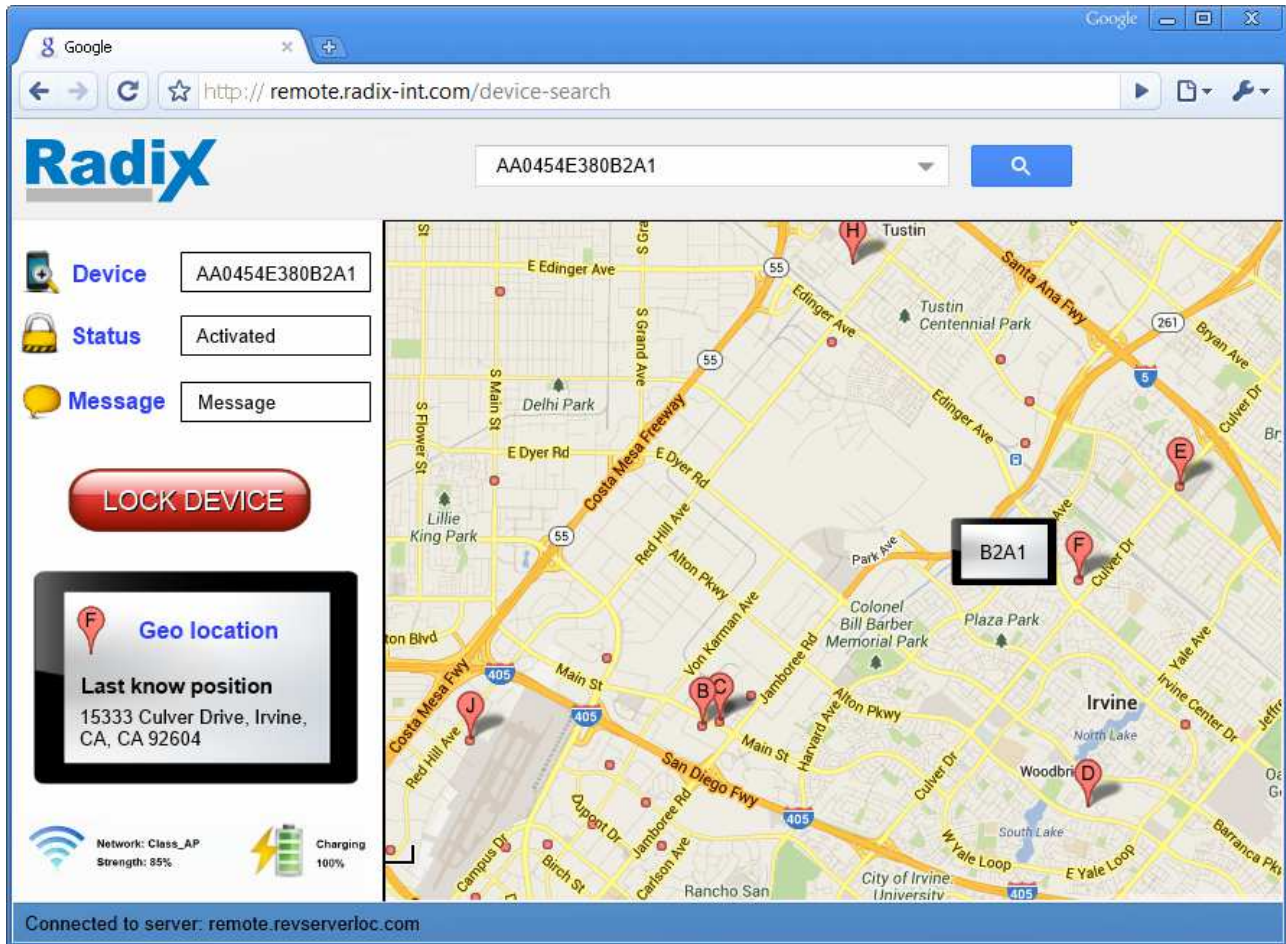

Overview

June 2013

Overview

Tablets are more vulnerable to real-world threats such as theft and loss than before. The ability to remotely lock it if stolen is just as important as data backups and insurance.

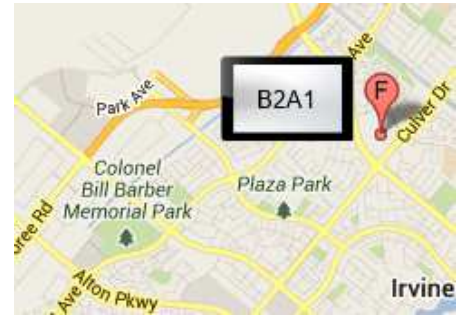

* All communication related features rely on active internet connection

Features and Specifications

Device information and system administration

- Cloud based hosted system server supporting up to 200K nodes per server
- ACL – access control and identification system
- Identify device by unique ID
- Set a unique password for local administration

Tracking

- Track device by GPS, Cell data, WiFi
- Track by command – start tracking upon command
- Track always – send a constant "last location on a given interval of time
- Display last location on map
- Display route on map

Locking

- Lock the device by remote command
- Lock device with a selected pin code
- Set lock function by geographic area
- Lock system when OS image changed – on supported hardware only

Un locking

- Unlock the device by remote command
- Unlock the device by pin code

Wiping

- Wipe device data from remote command
- Wipe device data after XX number of failed login try
- Wipe device data by geographic area

Alarm trigger and message

- Trigger an alarm from remote
- Send a popup message to the device

System requirements

- Android version 4.0, 4.0.1, 4.0.2, 4.0.3, 4.0.4, 4.1, 4.2
- Wi-Fi support
- Internet access

Features and specifications subject to change without notice. Availability depends on applicable tablet capabilities